New Faculty Orientation 2022
We are here to help you succeed

August 18, Campus Holiday Inn

New Faculty Orientation Teams Page

9:00-10:15 am  Welcome
Welcome from Dr. Angela Jaime, Interim Vice-Provost, Indigenous Engagement
Welcome from Dr. Airini, Provost and Vice-President Academic

Sharing Circles and Introductions
Overview: Dr. Patti McDougall, Deputy Provost

Possible Circle facilitators (depending on final numbers):
Dr. Airini, Provost and Vice-President Academic
Dr. Mary Buhr, Interim Vice-Provost, Faculty Relations
Dr. Patti McDougall, Deputy Provost
Dr. Angela Jaime, Interim Vice-Provost, Indigenous Engagement
Dr. Jay Wilson, Interim Vice-Provost, Teaching, Learning and Student Experience
Dr. Nancy Turner, Director, Teaching and Learning Enhancement

10:30-12:00              Session #1 – Essential Teaching Requirements
Facilitated by Dr. Wendy James, Manager, Gwenna Moss Centre for Teaching and Learning
Description: An interactive session from the Gwenna Moss Centre for Teaching and Learning supporting you in understanding what the expectations are for teaching practice and course design, student review of your course, and a teaching portfolio. Basic available technologies will also be discussed.

Lunch provided from 12:00-12:45

12:45-2:15 pm   Session #2 – Succeeding in your First Year
Facilitated by Nancy Turner
Description: A panel session providing an overview of what creates success in a faculty member’s first year. This session will also provide an opportunity to ask any questions that you may have.

Members:
- Dr. Baljit Singh, Vice-President Research
- Dr. Chelsea Willness, former University Secretary and Chief Governance Officer and Professor, Edwards School of Business
- Dr. Mary Buhr, Interim Vice-Provost, Faculty Relations

2:15pm          Break: 15 minutes
2:30 – 4:00 pm  Session #3 – Essentials for Starting your Research Program
Facilitated by Dr. Dawn Wallin, Associate Vice-President Research (Engagement) and Professor, Educational Administration

Description: This interactive session invites participants to discuss opportunities, supports, and challenges inherent in being a researcher that the world needs. Members in the Office of Vice President, Research will provide information on the essentials for creating a thriving research program at USask. This includes practical research considerations such as: pre- and post-award support for funding applications; opportunities for international research collaborations; intellectual property and technology transfer; and; creating and communicating a research profile. The session will also highlight institutional research initiatives that provide opportunities for researchers to engage in exciting interdisciplinary research that fosters our discovery mission.

4:30-6:00 pm  Reception at the President’s residence.

You will get a separate invitation for this event – please be sure to RSVP.